

Village of Chester
Special Meeting of Village Electors
July 8, 2009

Minutes

Present:

Bill Zinck Jr, Mike Heisler, Phil Elwood, Iris Tolliver

Regrets: None

The meeting was called to order by Bill Zinck Jr. at 7:35 pm. There were 35 electors present.

Mr. Zinck opened the meeting by making clear the purpose was to elect two new commissioners. He then made the first call for nominees. Gail Fraser stood and nominated Brenda Mulrooney. She commented on Brenda's being a long standing member of the community and commented that Brenda would be a strong and good member of the commission. Bill asked if Brenda would accept the nomination and she agreed. There was a call for more nominations, but there were none. Brenda won by proclamation her third term as Commissioner of the Village of Chester.

Mr. Zinck then made a second call for nominees. Joy Calkin stood and nominated Jo-Ann Grant. She proceeded to give a glowing report on the community spirit Jo-Ann has demonstrated. Bill asked Jo-Ann if she would accept the nomination and she agreed. There were no more nominations and Jo-Ann Grant won by proclamation.

Bill asked for a motion for nominations to cease and Phil Elwood made that motion.

Phil Elwood moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:20 pm., followed by applause from the audience.
